

Exciting News for Kelowna Riding Club Members:

For the very first time the Kelowna Riding Club will present

“The KRC Horsemanship Award”

This award will be in form of a $$ amount to support individuals excelling in equestrian sport. The money awarded is intended to be used towards horse related expenses (e.g. lessons, shows, travel expenses, tack, etc.). To be eligible for this award you have to be a KRC member in good standing. It doesn't matter what age you are, what discipline you ride in, if you are a beginner or an advanced rider.

Members must be nominated by a friend or family member by submitting a short essay outlining why the member should be eligible for this award and how the member will spend the money.

The award will be presented at our 2008 AGM in November.

Please submit applications by October 10th, 2008.

Mail to: KRC, 3745 Gordon Drive, Kelowna, BC V1W 4M8 or drop your application in the KRC mailbox at the Club house.
